

What team will you be a part of on June 18th?

Are you interested in participating in the Baltimore 10-Miler? Join the ranks of the FundRacers on the Back on My Feet Baltimore team for a profound running experience that lasts long after you cross the finish line. With less than two months to go, BoMF's team of 50 FundRacers, 30 plus members, and hundreds of BoMF Baltimore volunteers are gearing up for race day.

What is it like to experience the Baltimore 10-Miler with the BoMF Team?

BoMF participants will receive the combined benefit of competing in an individual sport while feeling the spirit of comradery from being a part of the team. In the words of a BoMF FundRacer from the 2009 Boston Marathon: "When I signed up to FundRace, my purpose shifted from seeing how fast I could run, to more importantly seeing how many people I could affect while doing it. The people who cared about me the most not only cared about how I ran, but now shared my passion for an organization that has allowed me to see the world beyond me."
